

Chapter 10 – The American Revolution & the BNA

Introduction & After the Fall of Quebec (Pages 292-301)

Directions: Answer the following questions in sentence form on a separate piece of lined paper unless otherwise indicated.

Introduction (p.294)

1. Why were the Thirteen Colonies the most important part of British North America?
2. Where did the British focus their efforts on after the loss of the American Colonies?
3. Where in Canada did some the Loyalists settle?
4. In 1791, the Loyalists were instrumental in splitting Quebec into two parts. Name the two parts.

After the Fall of Quebec:

After the Capture (p. 295-296)

5. Who was Marquis de Vaudreuil? (p. 247, 295). What happened to him?
6. Reading the caption and looking at the picture from Figure 10-1, what problems would the British conquerors have had to deal with immediately after the fall of the city?
7. According to the Treaty of Paris in 1763, what did France have to concede to Britain? What did France receive in exchange?

Quebec Accepts British Rule (p. 296-297)

9. The French refused to forget parts of their culture and traditions. Provide two examples of this.
10. Give three examples of how well the British treated the French after the conquest.
11. Who replaced the French fur merchants after the fall of New France? Where were they stationed?

Native Peoples' Resistance (p. 297-298)

12. Why did the Native Peoples and Native traders resist the British?
13. Read the short caption on the top of page 297 in the green box titled "Vice Squad". Why do you think the British allowed such people into the territory?
14. Describe Chief Pontiac and what he did.

A Royal Proclamation Angers the Americans (p. 299)

15. What was the purpose of the "Royal Proclamation", and its influence on the creation of the United States? (Note: also use the info in the "Did You Know" box in the right column.

Cross Currents: Weapons of Mass Destruction (p. 300)

16. Many nations argue that terror weapons, such as germ-warfare bombs, keep others from attacking, and therefore keep the peace. What is your opinion of these weapons?
17. In your opinion, should Jeffery Amherst have been charged as a war criminal? Would he be charged today?

The Quebec Act (p. 300-301)

18. Explain the Quebec Act.
19. What secret instructions were included in the Quebec Act?
20. Why were most Canadians disappointed with the Quebec Act?
21. What effect did the Quebec Act have on the relationship between Britain and the Thirteen Colonies (USA)? Why?